Dear Mr. Echavarri:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA number 2015-000131), dated November 7, 2014, in which you requested "a copy of the following documents identified to GS00V08PDD0068: 1. Contract/Order 2. SOW 3. All modifications."

Please find the enclosed document(s) responsive to your request. However, in processing your request, we are withholding the Data Universal Number System (DUNS) and unit pricing information which is considered proprietary under the fourth statutory exemption of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4), which states matters that are trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person or company that are privileged or confidential, if released, would result in competitive harm to the company. The disclosure of the mandatory total amount of the contract in tandem with unit prices may allow other pricing elements to be reverse engineered thereby compromising the contractor's commercial and financial strategies by disclosing the deltas between its line item pricing.

In addition, we withheld contractor names, titles, and signatures and Government signatures pursuant with the sixth exemption of FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 52(b)(6). This is done because public disclosure of this information would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Also, for your future reference please visit the following public website where redacted contractual documents can found for all contracts associated with the Federal Citizen Information Center, National Contact Center: <http://www.gsa.gov/portal/content/103362>.

Based on the above information, this constitutes a partial denial of your request. You have the right to appeal this partial denial of records under FOIA. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

U.S. General Services Administration
Freedom of Information Act Requester Service Center
1800 F Street, Northwest, Room 7308

Your appeal should include a copy of the original request, this response, and a statement regarding why the withheld records should be made available to you. The appeal letter, the envelope, the email subject line, or the fax cover sheet should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

1800 F St. NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20417
Telephone: (855) 675-3642
